

UNCORKED

A Contemporary Romance with Elements of Suspense Chella Noon's life isn't her own. Her success as a Marketing Executive in the cosmetic division of an international conglomerate is overshadowed by a series of tragic events from a decade ago. With no family, few trusted friends and years spent on the run, she opens herself up to the possibility of a future with a sexy new real estate investor despite escalating threats from a psychotic ex determined to torment...

Reader's Opinions

WOW, what a great read. I was pulled in from the first page to the last. Loved both Chella and Mitch's characters and Rebecca's writing style. This book takes you on a rollercoaster ride full of twists and turns that you don't expect, it's captivating reading. There is everything you can wish for in a book, love hot sex, intrigue, lies...

Rebecca Rohman pulled me into Chella's world and made me feel everything she was feeling. Chella has been living a life of fear for 10 years a boyfriend gone wrong in the worst possible way. She meets Mitch and for the first time wants to have a different life and look to the future. There is a great back and forth between Chella and...
