Reader's Opinions

This book contains many pieces of old artwork from the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Children can practice their counting skills when participating throughout the book. However, this book may be for older children as some of the words are most likely unknown to younger ages. Adults could easily help the younger children.*Book from text...

Like the first Can You Find It?, this book is great for exposing children to fine art and teaching them careful observation. This volume includes pieces from other art collections (e.g., the Louvre, the...
