Peek Inside the Book

But one of the great tragedies of life is that you cannot force people to read what they ought, as good as it might be for them. - Roland Gardner "Query Robert Boyczuk, Horror Story and Other Horror Stories //

Reader's Opinions

I picked this up at Ad-Astra, with slight hesitation on my part as I'm very easily scared and that fear generally lingers for ages. I delved into this collection of short stories expecting classic horror and that sure isn't what I got. These stories feature a fear that slowly insinuates itself into your thoughts, grows, and refuses...

Wonderful set of stories. A mix of classic horror stories (monsters, supernatural beings, serial killers), sci-fi (with a thriller/horror twist), and just some great thrillers. As the back cover says, the primary themes of the stories are love and loss. Many of them go in...
