

FACADE

Deputy Detective KC Tanner, guards his private life much the same as his Doberman, Zappa, guards his home. He's content to live a life of solitude, hiding behind the wall he's carefully constructed around himself. Trouble is Sharalee MacArthur, stuck in a fantasy world of her own making, still envisions KC as the man she will one day marry. That is until reality shatters his isolation and dashes her hopes, and a madman running loose in their homey little community has KC and...

Reader's Opinions

What an action packed and twisted tale of murder and revenge. Loved every heart pounding twist and mind expanding and entertaining moment. This is a story that leaves you wanting more. (but in a good way) KC is such an interesting mystery and the way his history unfolds is nothing short of mind blowing. Sharalee is spunky...
