

CROCODILES PLAY!

A crocodile's day involves a lot more than swimming and basking in the sun! In this witty follow-up to the author's popular Crocodiles Say, crazy crocs get into every kind of mischief they can think of after school is out. They find time for plenty of raucous reptile romps! The crocodiles' playful antics entertain young readers while subtly reinforcing the importance of good behavior and positive habits. Rae Maté's whimsical illustrations enhance the rhythmic, read-aloud, easy-to-follow text.

Reader's Opinions

Excellent read-aloud. The vocabulary is varied--sometimes stretching beyond what young children will understand, but the rhyming format of the text and the trajectory of the story allieviate that problem. This is the story of crocodiles who equip themselves to play one sport and then...

Match the sports up with the text? Guess again! Mediocre, at best, but just down right boring. Nothing about this book popped. NOTHING.
