

TEX & SUGAR: A BIG CITY KITTY DITTY

Meet two delightful country-crooning cats who will have kids singing their praises: Tex Mex Rex and Sugar Lee Snughead. Both kitties have left their small towns and come to the big city in search of fame and fortune on the stage. And why not? Tex's tunes "could put smiles on fields full of cattle," while Sugar's voice "called as sweetly as catbirds in June." But city life isn't all it's cracked up...

Reader's Opinions

Great message about following your heart! Thankfully, this message is well integrated into a clever, gorgeously illustrated story. Every time I open it I find new things to look at- I love the subway scene, and the dog version of Nathan Lane at the auditions!
