

LOOK! BODY LANGUAGE IN ART

This informative, interactive book introduces children to the practice of observing gestures and poses represented in great works from Van Gogh to Picasso to Pop Art. Gillian Wolfe, who has published several art books for children, invites young viewers to look up, down, outside, inside, close up, and all around 18 different paintings. Questions and activities on each page encourage focused contemplation. For example, "Look Behind" features two paintings, Cresspi's The...

Reader's Opinions

Very interesting children's book that has children focus on a piece of art and what the artist tells us through the details in the people within the painting. Also offers ideas for children to explore through art.
