

KISS OR KILL

Special Agent Renee LeBlanc was deep undercover, close to exposing the leader of a terrorist cell. Then he showed up in the midst of her op. Mark Alexander, the only man who had ever upset Renee's uncanny instincts--a man who could blow her cover with a word. The desire between them was as strong as ever, but who was Mark really--ally or foe? Hero or villain? Lover...or assassin? These were...

Reader's Opinions

This fast moving read, pulled me in at the beginning and was hard to put down. It had suspense, romance, a little humor. I really liked it.

Not just the best book I've ever read. Both Special Agent Renee LeBlanc and Mark Alexander are both undercover, but for two different reasons. Both must learn to trust the other if they want to make it out of this cover alive and with the information they are...
