Reader's Opinions

As this is a true story, the story of Michelle's battle with Cancer, it was an eye opener. I don't normally read these kind of books; true stories, memoirs, etc. But this story is definelty something all women should read.I did tear up, hey this is a very emotional subject. The author was kind enough to not go all crazy with the medical...

What an emotional accounting of a very private and terrifying battle! How courageous you are to share your experience with others! Thank you
