Peek Inside the Book

The nature and purpose of Xeper is hidden in the myth of the contendings of Set and Horus. In the Temple there are two views of Xeper. One is the Nietzschean view that Xeper is the process of becoming who you are. That is to say,...

Crowley's self submitting not to a god but to his Self, the Left-Hand Path was remanifested in the West. The roots of this had been developing in the words of Friedrich Nietzsche and the magick...

Reader's Opinions

Clearly written and immensely useful. I would second the opinion that the book could have been otherwise structured, instead of starting with the commentaries to the Book of the Law, but that is a minor complaint. Webb has an unique vantage point to the practice of magic; his...
