Reader's Opinions

In this book Elmer the Elephant says Hello to his different animal friends, saying something about how they are different. It shows that although everyone looks different they can all be friends.

This is a popular and familiar book for children in EYFS. Elmer takes us through the book introducing us to all his wonderful friends and describing them. It finishes with showing us how all of Elmer's friends are different but they all love Elmer. This is a colourful book that can be used to encourage discussion at circle time, covering...
