

SHATTERED BLUE

Shane MacKinnon used to be somebody else. Hounded by scandal and haunted by a shameful secret, wealthy, privileged Shannon Malone fled Manhattan and took on a new identity. Five years later, she's finally met a man who loves her in spite of her troubled past. He's leading her into a world of sensual pleasure she never imagined. Now a menacing whisper on the phone threatens to shatter her new life. Someone thinks she has the missing millions from a massive investment scam....

Peek Inside the Book

Ralph, escort Ms. MacKinnon to get her stuff. Come right back out, and don't touch anything near the crime scene. I won't. Oh, I know you won't. I was talking to Ralphie here. He gets a little ahead of himself sometimes, if...

She hit the button again, holding her breath this time until she heard it. Soft, sibilant, as insubstantial as the breaths that came before: Shannon. The voice whispered Shannon. The blood rushed out of her head. Her heart knocked hard in her chest. Her knees buckled and she grabbed the counter to keep from falling. She was starting to hyperventilate, had to calm it down before she was taken by a full-blown panic attack. Paper bag. Think. Think! Drawer below...

Reader's Opinions

Great book! It had a good love story and a slowly developing suspense. I could almost hear the "du du du dum dum" of the music in a suspense film. The pace of the book was great, I loved that the author describes the scenery without going...
