

BILLY'S ROOM

They live in the lull between a promising new life and the haunting footprints of their past. A man possesses a mysterious treasure that has overtaken his life. A newlywed finds that someone has stolen his door. And in the title story, an office worker with a devious mother has become obsessed with a certain mirror which he believes has begun to reflect a person who is not himself. These are stories that call into question our relationship with...

Peek Inside the Book

Inside the room there sat a rocker, which she sat on, and which had rocked her while she sipped the beer, because in spite of herself she had become so giddy to have so quickly relieved her heart that she allowed herself to lean backwards while in the rocker, which had made it possible for the rocker...
